Subject:	Roadmap to enhance information exchange and information management including interoperability solutions in the Justice and Home Affairs area: - Update following Council Conclusions on interoperability

At the initiative of the Netherlands Presidency, the Council at its meeting of 9-10 June 2016 endorsed the Roadmap to enhance information exchange and information management including interoperability solutions in the Justice and Home Affairs area (9368/1/16 REV 1). It gives an overview of specific, practical short- and medium-term actions and long-term orientations for enhancing information exchange and information management aiming to contribute to tackling migratory, terrorist and crime-related challenges.

1. Update of the Roadmap

In its Conclusions on the way forward to improve information exchange and ensure the interoperability of EU information systems of 8 June 2017, the Council invited the Presidency to update the Roadmap as a comprehensive tool within the Council, incorporating the recommendations of the High-Level Expert Group on Information Systems and Interoperability in line with these Conclusions, the actions of the updated Information Management Strategy (IMS) for EU internal security, and all other relevant actions contributing to the guidance, implementation and monitoring of various activities aimed at improving information management and the interoperability of EU information systems in the area of Justice and Home Affairs with a coherent approach seeking synergy and avoiding overlaps.

The Presidency has therefore prepared a proposal to update the Roadmap in line with the aforementioned Council Conclusions along the following lines:

- the recommendations of the High-Level Expert Group and some elements of the related Council Conclusions have been added either as new actions or as sub-actions of the existing ones;
- in the light of the recent developments, some related actions or sub-actions have been updated and subsumed under the same action;
- following the aforementioned changes, the structure of the document was slightly updated to reflect all the actions in a structured manner;
- the actions that can be considered completed have been moved to Chapter 5 containing the list of the completed actions (no actions have been removed).

An overview of corresponding actions in the IMS action list is added as an Annex to the Roadmap. As the IMS action list is due to be updated in the coming weeks, the new actions should also be reflected in the Roadmap in the future.

2. Implementation of the Roadmap

Two comprehensive implementation reports of the Roadmap have been submitted to the Council so far (13554/1/16 REV 1 at its meeting on 18 November 2016 and 8433/17 at its meeting on 8 June 2017) with comments regarding the implementation of each action.

In line with the general principles set out in the Roadmap, the comprehensive overview of the progress made should be carried out by COSI once per year. Therefore, at this stage the Presidency would like to only focus on the most important activities carried out since the last implementation report.

a) Analysis of the EU information architecture in the JHA area, and the report of the High-Level Expert Group on Information Systems and Interoperability

The Roadmap outlined that the analysis of the gaps and needs of the EU information architecture in the JHA area was necessary. By decision C/2016/3780 of 17 June 2016, the Commission set up a High-Level Expert Group on information systems and interoperability with an aim to identify and address shortcomings and information gaps caused by the complexity and fragmentations of information systems at the European level. It brought together the high-level representatives of the European Commission, Member States, Schengen Associated Countries, the relevant EU agencies, the Counter-Terrorism Coordinator, and the General Secretariat of Council and the European Parliament Committee on Civil Liberties, Justice and Home Affairs as observers.

The High-Level Expert Group published its final report on 11 May 2017 (8434/1/17 REV 1). It included a number of specific recommendations and concluded that it is necessary and technically feasible to work towards three instruments for interoperability: a European Search Portal (ESP), a shared Biometric Matching Service (BMS) and a Common Identity Repository (CIR). The Council in its Conclusions of 8 June 2017 welcomed the recommendations by the Group and invited the Commission to present a legislative proposal on interoperability, which is currently expected on 12 December 2017. The aim would be to achieve interoperability of EU JHA information systems by 2020.

The relevant recommendations of the High-Level Expert Group have been incorporated in the updated Roadmap set out in the Annex.

b) Pursuing interoperability solutions and the work of the DAPIX: Friends of the Presidency on interoperability of EU information systems

The Roadmap also outlined that interoperability solutions need to be pursued. As mentioned above, the High-Level Expert Group provided recommendations in relation to three instruments for interoperability: ESP, shared BMS and CIR. The feasibility studies in relation to these three elements have either been concluded or are about to be concluded and will feed into the legislative proposal on interoperability. The Commission presented the content of those feasibility studies at two dedicated expert meetings on 27 July 2017 and 6 October 2017 as well as at the meetings of DAPIX: Friends of the Presidency on interoperability of EU information systems.

The DAPIX: Friends of the Presidency on interoperability of EU information systems format was set up by COSI at its meeting on 20 June 2017 on the basis of the note 10261/17 with the aim to mainly discuss the outcome of the aforementioned feasibility studies on various aspects of interoperability, to feed into the preparatory work by the Commission for the interoperability proposal and to update the Roadmap. The group met on 26 July 2017, 22 September 2017, 5 and 27 October 2017 to carry out those tasks. It also held a comprehensive discussion on the law enforcement access to EU information systems in the JHA area, and Member States' feedback in relation to this issue was collected on the basis of the Presidency note 12258/17.

c) Improving existing information systems and creating new systems in the JHA area

The Roadmap also contains multiple references to the need for legislative improvements in relation to the existing information systems and for creating new systems in the JHA area. As regards the existing SIS and Eurodac information systems, important progress has been achieved on the related legislative proposals: the trilogues on the three SIS proposals are expected to start in the near future and the trilogues on Eurodac are ongoing. The new legislative proposal on VIS is expected to be presented in June 2018.

As regards the new information systems, the co-legislators have already reached an agreement on the Entry/Exit System, the implementation of which should be completed in 2020. The trilogues on ETIAS are ongoing, and the system should be implemented in 2021.

The Standing Committee on Operational Cooperation on Internal Security (COSI) at its meeting on 21 November 2017 endorsed the proposal to update the Roadmap set out in the Annex and the overview of the implementation thereof as set out above, and agreed to submit it to COREPER and the Council for endorsement.
