Subject : Initiative of the Kingdom of Belgium, the Republic of Bulgaria, the Republic of Estonia, the Kingdom of Spain, the Republic of Austria, the Republic of Slovenia and the Kingdom of Sweden for a Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council regarding the European Investigation Order in criminal matters
- Follow-up document of the meeting of the "Friends of the Presidency" meeting on 26 October 2011

I. INTRODUCTION

The initiative for a Directive of the European Parliament and the Council regarding the European Investigation Order in criminal matters (hereafter "the EIO") has been presented to the Council in April 2010. At its meeting in June 2011 the Council reached a partial general approach on the main regime (Articles 1-18, and Article Y).¹ Some delegations maintain parliamentary scrutiny reservations on the draft Directive.

At its meeting on 17 October 2011 the Working Party on Cooperation in criminal matters continued the examination of certain measures set out in Chapter IV and the final provisions set out in Chapter V of the initiative on the basis of document 15065/11 COPEN 263 EUROJUST 155 EJM 130 CODEC 1593. The Presidency maintained its invitation to delegations to submit further contributions, in writing, in respect of the examined provisions.

As a result of these discussions the Presidency introduced further modifications into the text of Chapter IV as it is set out in the Annex to this note. Specific observations made by delegations are set out in the footnotes to particular provisions. Similarly, specific observations made to Chapter V are indicated under the relevant provisions.

A number of delegations entered scrutiny reservations on specific Articles set out in Chapter IV.

The provisions relevant for the "interception of telecommunications" are set out in a separate note: doc 15651/11 COPEN 275 EUROJUST 161 EJM 135 CODEC 1704.

II. CONCLUSIONS

Delegations are invited to continue the examination of the modified provisions contained in Chapter IV and V of the draft Directive as set out in the Annex.

CHAPTER IV

SPECIFIC PROVISIONS FOR

CERTAIN INVESTIGATIVE MEASURES

Article 19²

Temporary transfer to the issuing State of persons held in custody for purpose of conducting an investigative measure

- 1.³ An EIO may be issued for the temporary transfer of a person in custody in the executing State for the purpose of conducting an investigative measure⁴ with a view to collecting evidence for which his presence on the territory of the issuing State is required, provided that he shall be sent back within the period stipulated by the executing State.

² IT/PT entered scrutiny reservations on Articles 19 and 20. UK supported by HU proposed to merge this Article with Article 20. BL/SK/FR opposed it.

⁴ EUROJUST questioned whether the hearing of witness at the trial is also included. This was confirmed by the Presidency which refers to the above-mentioned recital.

- 2.⁵ In addition to the grounds for non-recognition or non-execution referred to in Article 10 the execution of the EIO may also be refused if:
- (a) the person in custody does not consent⁶; or
 - (b) the transfer is liable to prolong his detention.
- 3.⁷ In a case under paragraph 1, transit of the person in custody through the territory of a third Member State shall be granted on application, accompanied by all necessary documents.
4. The practical arrangements regarding the temporary transfer of the person including the particularities of his custody conditions in the issuing State, and the dates by which he must be transferred from and returned to the territory of the executing State shall be agreed between the Member States concerned.
5. The transferred person shall remain in custody in the territory of the issuing State and, where applicable, in the territory of the Member State through which transit is required, for the acts or convictions for which he has been kept in custody in the executing State, unless the executing Member State applies for his release.

⁶ While most of the delegations were in favour of maintaining this specific ground for non recognition or non execution, some of them questioned it. NL, supported by RO/ES/FR, proposed to make a distinction according to the status of the person in the issuing State, so that witnesses will have the possibility to refuse their consent while suspected or accused persons will not. UK opposed it.

⁷ DE argued that a third Member States should be able to refuse transit of its own nationals.

6. The period of custody in the territory of the issuing Member State shall be deducted from the period of detention which the person concerned is or will be obliged to undergo in the territory of the executing Member State.
- 7.⁸ Without prejudice to paragraph 5, a transferred person shall not be prosecuted or detained or subjected to any other restriction of his personal liberty in the issuing State for acts committed or convictions handed down before his departure from the territory of the executing State and which are not specified in the EIO
8. The immunity provided for in paragraph 7 shall cease when the transferred person, having had for a period of fifteen consecutive days from the date when his presence is no longer required by the issuing authorities an opportunity to leave, has nevertheless remained in the territory, or having left it, has returned.
9. Costs resulting from the application of this Article shall be borne in accordance with Article Y, except for the costs arising from the transfer of the person to and from the issuing State which shall be borne by this State.

Article 20

Temporary transfer to the executing State of persons held in custody for the purpose of conducting an investigative measure

1. An EIO may be issued for the temporary transfer of a person held in custody in the issuing State for the purpose of conducting an investigative measure with a view to collecting evidence for which his presence on the territory of the executing State is required.

⁸ RO entered scrutiny reservation on paragraphs 7 and 8. SE/FI asked for the deletion of the last part of this paragraph, words: "and which are not specified in the EIO."

- 1a.⁹ Before issuing the EIO the person concerned shall be given opportunity to state her opinion to the issuing authority on the temporary transfer. Where the issuing State considers it necessary in view of the person's age or physical or mental condition, that opportunity shall be given to his or her legal representative. The opinion of the person shall be taken into account when deciding to issue an EIO.
- 2.¹⁰ (deleted)
3. (deleted)
4. (deleted; contained under para 5 below)
5. Paragraphs 3 to 8 of Article 19 are applicable mutatis mutandis to the temporary transfer under this Article.

⁹ UK entered a reservation arguing that the consent of the person is necessary. DE called for bringing back the original text of this Article, including the specific provision on costs. DE/CZ/LV/FI opposed this provision stating that the consent of the person should be required. Additionally DE argued that in the lack of the consent the executing State might refuse to take on the person to the prison. AT/ PT proposed to delete the second sentence of this paragraph. The Presidency explained that this Article deals with the persons who are in custody and thus "at the disposal" of the issuing authority. In response to the issue put forward by some MS that without a consent the person may not be willing to cooperate and thus the execution of the measure will be impossible, the Presidency explained that there may well be cases in which the cooperation of the person is not necessary: i.e. where the person is to be recognised by the witness in the executing State who is not in a position to travel to the issuing State. FI asked for a recital explaining this issue. FR suggested that information about the opinion of the person be sent to the executing State. The Presidency would like therefore to propose the following text of the recital: "Where the person held in custody is temporarily transferred for the purpose of carrying out of an investigative measure in the executing State it is important to take into account the opinion of that person on the temporary transfer in order not to prejudice the objective of the measure."

¹⁰ DE/FR entered scrutiny reservations on the deletion of this paragraph. Also UK/CZ/BG favoured its reinsertion as well as paragraph 3. CZ/DE/BG proposed that the lack of practical arrangements be considered as a ground for non-recognition or non-execution.

- 6.¹¹ Costs resulting from the application of this Article shall be borne in accordance with Article Y, except for the costs arising from the transfer of the person to and from the executing State which shall be borne by the issuing State.

Article 21¹²

Hearing by videoconference or other audio – visual transmission

1. If a person is in the territory of the executing State and has to be heard as a witness or expert by the competent¹³ authorities of the issuing State, the issuing authority may issue an EIO in order to hear the witness or expert by videoconference or other audio – visual transmission, as provided for in paragraphs 6 to 9.
- 1a.¹⁴ An EIO may also be issued for the purpose of the hearing of a suspected¹⁵ or accused person by videoconference or other audio - visual transmission. In addition to the grounds for non-recognition or non-execution referred to in Article 10, the execution of the EIO may also be refused if:
- a) the suspected or accused person does not consent;¹⁶ or
 - b) the execution of such a measure in a particular case would be contrary to the fundamental principles of the law of the executing State.

¹¹ FR opposed the inclusion of a provision on costs in this Article.

¹³ FR/NL/DE questioned the change of the reference to "competent authorities" in paragraph 6 of this Article.

¹⁴ Scrutiny reservation by IT on this paragraph.

¹⁵ FR expressed concerns about an inclusion of a reference to „suspect“.

¹⁶ SE/PT questioned whether the ground for non recognition and non-execution set out under point a) is not already included under point b). (UK/DE stated that the consent should be required also in relation to experts and witnesses.

- 1b. The practical arrangements regarding the hearing shall be agreed between the issuing and the executing authority. When agreeing such arrangements, the executing authority shall undertake to:
- (a) summon the witness or expert concerned of the time and the venue of the hearing or;
 - (b) summon the suspected or accused person to appear for the hearing in accordance with the forms laid down by its law, in such a time as to allow him to exercise his rights of defence effectively;
 - (c) ensure the identification of the person to be heard.
2. (deleted)
3. (deleted)
4. (deleted)
5. (deleted)
6. In case of a hearing by videoconference or other audio – visual transmission, the following rules shall apply:
- (a) a competent authority of the executing State shall be present during the hearing, where necessary assisted by an interpreter, and shall also be responsible for ensuring both the identification of the person to be heard and respect for the fundamental principles of the law of the executing State. If the executing authority is of the view that during the hearing the fundamental principles of the law of the executing State are being infringed, it shall immediately take the necessary measures to ensure that the hearing continues in accordance with the said principles;
 - (b) measures for the protection of the person to be heard shall be agreed, where necessary, between the competent authorities of the issuing and the executing State;

- (c) the hearing shall be conducted directly by, or under the direction of, the competent authority of the issuing State in accordance with its own laws;
- (d) at the request of the issuing State or the person to be heard, the executing State shall ensure that the person to be heard is assisted by an interpreter, if necessary;
- (e)¹⁷ the person to be heard may claim the right not to testify which would accrue to him under the law of either the executing or the issuing State; the person concerned shall be informed about this right in advance of the hearing.
7. Without prejudice to any measures agreed for the protection of the persons, the executing authority shall on the conclusion of the hearing draw up minutes indicating the date and place of the hearing, the identity of the person heard, the identities and functions of all other persons in the executing State participating in the hearing, any oaths taken and the technical conditions under which the hearing took place. The document shall be forwarded by the executing authority to the issuing authority.
- 8.¹⁸ (deleted)
9. Each Member State shall take the necessary measures to ensure that, where (...) the person is being heard within its territory in accordance with this Article and refuse to testify when under an obligation to testify or do not testify the truth, its national law applies in the same way as if the hearing took place in a national procedure.¹⁹

¹⁷ DE proposed to include also the right of the person to be assisted by the legal counsel. CZ also argued that the rights of the person should be further specified. NL proposed that a clear distinction is made between the cases of hearing of witness and/or expert and of suspected/accused person, as specific procedural guarantees are needed for this latter category. NL argued that the person should be notified of its rights in accordance with the law of the issuing State. In this respect, the Presidency drew the attention of delegations on the risk of pre-empting discussions on the roadmap.

¹⁸ CZ/SK argued for the reintroduction of the paragraph on costs. DE entered a scrutiny reservation on the deletion of this paragraph.

¹⁹ DE proposed to add the following text: "Member States are not obliged to use coercive measures in order to carry out hearing of witness and or experts."

10. (moved to paragraph 1a)

Article 22²⁰

Hearing by telephone conference

1. If a person is in the territory of one Member State and has to be heard as a witness or expert by competent authorities of another Member State, the issuing authority of the latter Member State may issue an EIO in order to hear a witness or expert by telephone conference as provided for in paragraph 4.
- 2.²¹ (deleted)
3. (deleted)
4. Unless otherwise agreed, the provisions of Article 21(1b.), (6), (7) and (9)²² shall apply mutatis mutandis.

²⁰ SE reiterated its suggestion that an indication be made that the current practice or arrangements existing between Member States would not be interfered by this provision. This delegation also asked that a reference be made in this Article to "other audio transmission".

²² DE proposed the deletion of the reference to this paragraph.

Article 23²³²⁴

Information on bank and other financial accounts

- 1²⁵. An EIO may be issued in order to determine whether any natural or legal person that is the subject of the criminal proceedings²⁶ holds or controls one or more accounts, of whatever nature, in any bank located in the territory of the executing State.²⁷
2. Each Member State shall, under the conditions set out in this Article, take the measures necessary to enable it to provide the information referred to in paragraph 1.

²³ DE/IT/LU entered scrutiny reservation on Articles 23 and 24. ES entered scrutiny reservation on Article 23.

²⁴ During the Friends of Presidency meeting on 26 October 2011 some Member States raised the question of the relationship of Articles 23 and 24 with Article 10(1a) which provides for the so called „positive list”. Some delegations argued that the issue whether these measures fall under the "positive list" should be assessed by the executing authority, according to its domestic law. Therefore the Presidency would like to propose that the following recital be inserted into the preamble: „Bank and non-bank account checks, as provided for in Articles 23 and 24, appear to be an important measure of fighting organised and financial crime, as well as money laundering. Its sensitive nature, however, must be taken into account, even though the assessment of its intrusiveness may differ in various States. Due to this, the issue whether these measures fall under it Article 10(1a) shall be answered by the executing authority, in accordance with the domestic law and on a case – by – case basis.”

²⁵ In order to address suggestions made by some delegations to extend the scope of this provision also to persons other than suspects, the Presidency would like to propose the following text of the recital: "An EIO may be issued in order to get evidential information concerning the accounts, of whatever nature, held in any bank or any non-banking financial institution by the person subject to criminal proceedings. This possibility is to be understood broadly as comprising not only suspected or accused persons but also any other person in respect of which such information is found necessary by the competent authorities in the course of criminal proceedings." LU entered scrutiny reservation on this recital.

²⁶ UK proposed to extend the scope of this provision to all proceedings covered by the Directive according to Article 4.

²⁷ UK/FR/SK proposed to align the text with Article 1 of the 2001 Protocol by adding the following terms: "and if so, provide all the details of the identified accounts".

3. The information referred to in paragraph 1 shall also, if requested in the EIO and to the extent that it can be provided within a reasonable time,²⁸ include accounts for which the person that is the subject of the proceedings has powers of attorney.
4. The obligation set out in this Article shall apply only to the extent that the information is in the possession of the bank keeping the account.
- 5.²⁹ (deleted)
- 6.³⁰ [The issuing authority shall state in the EIO why it considers that the requested information is likely to be of substantial value for the purpose of the criminal proceedings and on what grounds it presumes that banks in the executing State hold the account and, to the extent available, which banks may be involved. It shall also include in the EIO any information available which may facilitate its execution]³¹.
- 7.³² An EIO may also be issued to determine whether any non-bank financial institution located on the territory of the executing State is in possession of information on any natural or legal person that is the subject of the criminal proceedings. Paragraphs (...) 3 to 6 shall apply mutatis mutandis. In such case and in addition to the grounds for non-recognition and non-execution referred to in Article 10, the execution of the EIO may also be refused if the execution of the measure would not be authorised in a similar national case.

²⁸ UK considered this indication redundant with Article 11 on time limits.

²⁹ HU/LU entered scrutiny reservations on the deletion of this paragraph.

³⁰ Delegations were not in agreement in respect of whether this provision should be maintained or deleted. However, a majority of intervening delegations called for maintaining it in the text.

³¹ Some delegations considered this paragraph to be redundant and instead that this information should be contained in the EIO form.

³² Scrutiny reservation by BE/ES/IT/PT/CZ. AT/ LU opposed the inclusion of this paragraph, arguing that there is no common definition of “ financial institutions other than banks”. To this end the Presidency proposes to add a new recital clarifying that for the purpose of the EIO the definition of the financial institution should be understood according to the Art. 3 of the Directive 2005/60/EC. CZ/NL/FI/SK/HU/LV/UK/IT/SE favoured however this extension of the scope. CZ/SK/SE/FI/NL/HU asked for the limitation of the additional ground for refusal.

Article 24³³

Information on banking and other financial operations

1. An EIO may be issued in order to obtain the particulars³⁴ of specified bank accounts and of banking operations which have been carried out during a specified period through one or more accounts specified within, including the particulars of any sending or recipient account.
2. Each Member State shall, under the conditions set out in this Article, take the measures necessary to be able to provide the information referred to in paragraph 1.
3. The obligation set out in this Article shall apply only to the extent that the information is in the possession of the bank holding the account.
- 4.³⁵ [The issuing State shall indicate in the EIO why it considers the requested information relevant for the purpose of the criminal proceedings.]
- 5.³⁶ An EIO may also be issued with regard to the information provided for in paragraph 1 with reference to the financial operations other than banking one. Paragraphs (...) 3 to 4 shall apply mutatis mutandis. In such case and in addition to the grounds for non-recognition and non-execution referred to in Article 10, the execution of the EIO may also be refused if the execution of the measure would not be authorised in a similar national case.

³³ DE/UK entered scrutiny reservation on the relationship of these provisions and Article 10.1b.

³⁴ UK proposed to supplement this provision by a following recital: ‘When an EIO is issued to obtain the ‘particulars’ of a specified account, ‘particulars’ is understood to include at least the name and address of the account holder, details of any powers of attorney held over the account, and any other details or documents provided by the account holder when the account was opened and that are still held by the bank.’

³⁵ C.f. footnote under paragraph 6 of Article 23.

³⁶ SE/FI/CZ asked for a limitation of the additional ground for refusal.

- (a) monitoring banking or other financial operations that are being carried out through one or more specified accounts; its execution may be refused, in addition to the grounds for non-recognition and non-execution referred to in Article 10, if the execution of the measure concerned would not be authorised in a similar national case.

- (...)

³⁷ Scrutiny reservation by HU/IT/DE/UK on this Article.

³⁸ DE reiterated its proposal to change "and" by "or".

³⁹ FI proposed to add the following specific measures to this list: "c) technical or other surveillance; d) use of informants".

⁴⁰ UK suggested that the provision on controlled deliveries be further detailed.

2. The practical arrangements regarding the measure referred under paragraph 1 (b) and wherever else necessary, shall be agreed between the Member States concerned.⁴¹
- 3.⁴² [The issuing State shall indicate in the EIO why it considers the requested information relevant for the purpose of the criminal proceedings.]

3. Execution of an EIO referred to in paragraph 1 may be refused, in addition to the grounds for non-recognition and non-execution referred to in Article 10, if the execution of the measure concerned would not be authorised in a similar national case and where it was not possible to reach an agreement, as set out in paragraphs 4 and 5.

⁴¹ CZ proposed that the lack of an agreement be considered as a ground for non-recognition or non-execution.

⁴² C.f. footnote under paragraph 6 of Article 23. RO/HU/CZ proposed the deletion of this paragraph.

⁴³ Scrutiny reservation by UK/NL/DE/IT/FR/SE.

4. Covert investigations shall take place in accordance with the national law and procedures of the Member State on the territory of which the covert investigation takes place. The duration of the covert investigation, the detailed conditions, and the legal status of the officers concerned during covert investigations shall be agreed between the Member States with due regard to their national law and procedures.
5. Each Member States shall cooperate (...) to ensure that while acting as an executing State the covert investigation is prepared and supervised in the cooperation with the issuing State and that arrangements are made for the security of the officers acting under covert or false identity.
