NOTE
From: Presidency
To: Council
Subject: Application of Article 10 of Protocol 36 to the Treaties
- Complementary note on the state of play report

On page 14, 6th paragraph:

For:

"If the United Kingdom has not made a decision to rejoin the Prüm Decisions by 31st December 2015 and has not formally applied to opt back in within four weeks of that date, the funds received by the United Kingdom from the ISEC Programme will not have been used for the implementation of the Prüm Decisions, and will therefore be repaid by the United Kingdom as the direct financial consequences, necessarily and unavoidably incurred as a result of the cessation of its participation in the Prüm Decisions. This amounts to approximately €1.5m."
"If the United Kingdom has not made a decision to rejoin the Prüm Decisions by 31st December 2015 and has not formally applied to opt back in within four weeks of that date, the funds received by the United Kingdom from the ISEC Programme will not have been used for the implementation of the Prüm Decisions, and will therefore be repaid by the United Kingdom as the direct financial consequences, necessarily and unavoidably incurred as a result of the cessation of its participation in the Prüm Decisions. This amounts to approximately €1.5m. In such a case the European Commission will present a report on the effects of the non-participation of the United Kingdom in the Prüm Decisions."