Subject:	Proposal for a Directive of the European Parliament and of the Council laying down standards for the reception of applicants for international protection (recast)

At its meetings on 9 and 21 November 2016, 16 March 2017, 10 May 2017 and 14 June 2017, the Asylum Working Party examined the proposal for a Directive laying down standards for the reception of applicants for international protection. The Asylum Working Party has further examined some of the articles in the framework of the thematic approach. The text was also examined by the JHA Counsellors at their meetings on 14 July, 13 September 2017 and 16 October 2017.

New text for discussion at the JHA Counsellors meeting on 8 November 2017 is indicated with ➔addition in bold and underlined and the newly deleted text is indicated in ~~strikethrough~~ (bold). Text already introduced in the previous Presidency proposals (docs 7004/17, 6942/17, 8258/17, 9799/17, 11033/17 and 11494/17) is indicated with ➔addition underlined, while text deleted in the previous Presidency proposals (docs 7004/17, 6942/17, 8258/17 and 9799/17, 11033/17 and 11494/17) is indicated in ~~strikethrough~~.

Comments made by delegations on the Commission proposal text, orally and in writing, appear in the footnotes of the Annex.

Proposal for a

DIRECTIVE OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL

laying down standards for the reception of applicants for international protection (recast)¹

THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union, and in particular Article 78(2)(f) thereof,

Having regard to the proposal from the European Commission,

After transmission of the draft legislative act to the national parliaments,

Having regard to the opinion of the European Economic and Social Committee²,

Having regard to the opinion of the Committee of the Regions³,

AT, BG, CZ, DE, EL, ES, FI, FR, HU, LT, PL, SI, SE and SK: scrutiny reservation on the entire proposal. HU: parliamentary scrutiny reservation. NL: in the proposal a more logical and effective system of freedom restricted measures is envisaged. It fully supports this, but believes the text of the proposal could even be more improved if it contains a comprehensive system with a sliding scale of these measures. This will also render the proposed measures more effective, especially the measure of detention. PL: this proposal has many unclear and incomprehensible provisions. It is not uniform in terms of terminology. It is extremely difficult to determine what purpose have specific provisions of the directive, and in consequence what will the impact of the directive be for Member States.

[(1) A number of ~~substantive changes~~ amendments are to be made to ~~Council Directive 2003/9/EC of 27 January 2003 laying down minimum standards for the reception of asylum seekers~~⁴ Directive 2013/33/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council⁵ . In the interests of clarity, that Directive should be recast.

↓ 2013/33/EU recital 2 (adapted)

(2) A common policy on asylum, including a Common European Asylum System_{III} (CEAS), which is based on the full and inclusive application of the Geneva Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees of 28 July 1951, as supplemented by the New York Protocol of 31 January 1967, is a constituent part of the European Union's objective of progressively establishing an area of freedom, security and justice open to those who, forced by circumstances, legitimately seek protection in the Union , thus affirming the principle of non-refoulement . Such a policy should be governed by the principle of solidarity and fair sharing of responsibility, including its financial implications, between the Member States.

⁵ Directive 2013/33/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 29 June 2013 laying down standards for the reception of applicants for international protection (OJ L 180, 29.6.2013, p. 96).

- (3) The Common European Asylum System (CEAS) is based on a system for determining the Member State responsible for applicants for international protection and common standards for asylum procedures, reception conditions and procedures and rights of beneficiaries of international protection. Notwithstanding the significant progress that has been made in the development of the CEAS, there are still notable differences between the Member States with regard to the types of procedures used, the reception conditions provided to applicants, the recognition rates and the type of protection granted to beneficiaries of international protection. These divergences are important drivers of secondary movement and undermine the objective of ensuring that all applicants are equally treated wherever they apply in the Union.

- ~~(3) At its special meeting in Tampere on 15 and 16 October 1999, the European Council agreed to work towards establishing a Common European Asylum System, based on the full and inclusive application of the Geneva Convention Relating to the Status of Refugees of 28 July 1951, as supplemented by the New York Protocol of 31 January 1967 ('the Geneva Convention'), thus affirming the principle of non-refoulement. The first phase of a Common European Asylum System was achieved through the adoption of relevant legal instruments, including Directive 2003/9/EC, provided for in the Treaties.~~

↓ 2013/33/EU recital 4 (adapted)

~~(4) The European Council, at its meeting of 4 November 2004, adopted The Hague Programme, which set the objectives to be implemented in the area of freedom, security and justice in the period 2005–2010. In this respect, The Hague Programme invited the European Commission to conclude the evaluation of the first phase instruments and to submit the second phase instruments and measures to the European Parliament and to the Council.~~

↓ 2013/33/EU recital 5 (adapted)

~~(5) The European Council, at its meeting of 10–11 December 2009, adopted the Stockholm Programme, which reiterated the commitment to the objective of establishing by 2012 a common area of protection and solidarity based on a common asylum procedure and a uniform status for those granted international protection based on high protection standards and fair and effective procedures. The Stockholm Programme further provides that it is crucial that individuals, regardless of the Member State in which their application for international protection is made, are offered an equivalent level of treatment as regards reception conditions.~~

(4) In its Communication of 6 April 2016 entitled 'Towards a reform of the Common European Asylum System and enhancing legal avenues to Europe',⁶ the Commission underlined the need for strengthening and harmonising further the CEAS. It also set out options for improving the CEAS, namely to establish a sustainable and fair system for determining the Member State responsible for applicants for international protection, to reinforce the Eurodac system, to achieve greater convergence in the Union asylum system, to prevent secondary movements within the Union and a new mandate for the European Union Agency for Asylum. This answers to calls by the European Council on 18-19 February 2016⁷ and on 17-18 March 2016⁸ to make progress towards reforming the Union's existing framework so as to ensure a humane and efficient asylum policy. It also proposes a way forward in line with the holistic approach to migration set out by the European Parliament in its own initiative report of 12 April 2016.

(5) Reception conditions continue to vary considerably between Member States States ☞, in particular ☞ both in terms of how the reception system is organised and in terms of ☞ as regards ☞ the standards provided to applicants. ~~The persistent problems in ensuring adherence to the reception standards required for a dignified treatment of applicants in some Member States has contributed to a disproportionate burden falling on a few Member States with generally high reception standards which are then under pressure to reduce their standards.~~ More ☞ harmonised ☞ equal reception standards set at an appropriate level across all Member States will contribute to a more dignified⁹ treatment and fairer distribution of applicants across the EU.

⁸ EUCO 12/1/16.

⁹ DE: wishes to keep "dignified". In its view a clear distinction should be made across the proposal between 'minimum standards' (to which dignified conditions would apply) and of 'standard cases' (to which adequate conditions would apply).

↓ 2013/33/EU recital 6 (adapted)

~~(6)~~ The resources of the ~~European Refugee~~ ☒ Asylum, Migration and Integration ☒ Fund and of the European ☒ Union Agency for ☒ Asylum Support Office should be mobilised to provide adequate support to Member States' efforts in implementing the standards set in ~~the second phase of the Common European Asylum System~~ ☒ this Directive ☒, in particular ☒ including ☒ to those Member States which are faced with specific and disproportionate pressures on their asylum systems, due in particular to their geographical or demographic situation.

~~(7)~~ ~~In the light of the results of the evaluations undertaken of the implementation of the first phase instruments, it is appropriate, at this stage, to confirm the principles underlying Directive 2003/9/EC with a view to ensuring improved reception conditions for applicants for international protection ('applicants').~~

- (7) In order to ensure equal treatment of applicants throughout the Union, this Directive should apply during all stages and types of procedures concerning applications for international protection, in all locations and facilities hosting applicants and for as long as they are allowed to remain on the territory of the Member States as applicants. ⇒ It is necessary to clarify that material reception conditions should be made available to applicants as from the moment when the person expresses his or her wish to apply for international protection to officials of the determining authority, as well as any officials of other authorities which are designated as competent to receive and register applications or which assist the determining authority to receive such applications in line with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [↻ Asylum ↻ Procedures Regulation]. ↻

➔ (7a) A daily expenses allowance should in all cases be provided to applicants as part of the material reception conditions in order for them to enjoy a minimum degree of autonomy in their daily life. It should be a specified monetary amount based on a daily value, provided to applicants periodically for them to use at their free disposal. Where relevant, a The daily expenses allowance ~~could~~ may be provided ~~given~~ in the form of a monetary amount allowanees, vouchers or in products kind. that applicants may use in designated premises . Where the daily expenses allowances is provided in the form of vouchers or in kind, Applicants should be able to freely dispose of the vouchers it should nevertheless be ensured that the applicants are able to freely dispose of a determined monetary amount, for example in designated premises, in a way that allows them to reach a minimum level of physical subsistence beyond housing, food, clothing or personal hygiene products. and enable them to enjoy a certain degree of autonomy in their daily life.and participation in the socio-cultural life of the Member State where they are residing.¹⁰ ©

¹⁰ DE, AT and IT: scrutiny reservations.DE, NL and PT: it should be clarified that this is a possibility, not an obligation. HU did not support providing financial allowances or vouchers to applicants. ES: wanted the words "based on a daily value" and the word "personal" before "hygiene products" should be deleted.

↓ 2013/33/EU recital 10

- (9) With respect to the treatment of persons falling within the scope of this Directive, Member States are bound by obligations under instruments of international law to which they are party.

¹¹ DE suggested adding the following sentence to recital 8: "Where an applicant is present in a Member State other than the one in which he or she is required to be present in accordance with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Dublin Regulation], the applicant should not be entitled to the reception conditions set out in Articles 14 to 17. (13) ~~With a view to ensuring equal treatment amongst all applicants for international protection and guaranteeing consistency with current EU asylum acquis, in particular with Directive 2011/95/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council of 13 December 2011 on standards for the qualification of third-country nationals or stateless persons as beneficiaries of international protection, for a uniform status for refugees or for persons eligible for subsidiary protection, and for the content of the protection granted¹⁵), it is appropriate to extend the scope of this Directive in order to include applicants for subsidiary protection.~~

¹⁴ DE: scrutiny reservation. The wording "of all their rights" is not limited to specific rights (e.g. with reference to "consequences of absconding" or "obligations with which applicants must comply related to reception conditions"). ↻ Council

(12) ¹⁶Harmonised EU rules on the documents to be issued to applicants ↻ should contribute to making ↻ make it more difficult for applicants to move in an unauthorised manner within the Union. ~~It needs to be clarified that~~ Member States should only provide applicants with a travel document when serious humanitarian or other imperative reasons arise. ↻ The issuance and use of such a travel document does not alter the Member States` responsibilities under the Dublin Regulation. ↻ The validity of travel documents should also be limited to the purpose and duration needed for the reason for which they are issued. Serious humanitarian reasons could for instance be considered when an applicant needs to travel to another State for medical treatment or to visit relatives in particular cases, such as for visits to close relatives who are seriously ill, or to attend marriages or funerals of close relatives¹⁷. Other imperative reasons could include situations where ↻ employed ↻ applicants ↻ in employment ↻ ~~who have been granted ↻ effective ↻~~ ~~access to the labour market~~ are required to ~~perform essential~~ travel for work purposes, where applicants are required to travel as part of study curricula or where minors are travelling with foster families.

¹⁷ RO: the notion of close relatives should be defined. The travel document should be issued in the form of a Laissez-passer.

- (13) Applicants do not have the right to choose the Member State of application. An applicant must apply for international protection in the Member State either of first entry or, in case of legal presence, in the Member State of legal stay or residence. ➞ [] ➞ An applicant who has not complied with this obligation is less likely, following a determination of the Member State responsible under Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Dublin Regulation], to be allowed to stay in the Member State where the application was made and consequently more likely to abscond. His or her whereabouts should therefore be closely monitored. ➞ Appropriate measures should be taken to avoid that keep the applicant absconds absconding.] ➞
- (14) Applicants are required to be present in the Member State where they made an application or in the Member State to which they are transferred in accordance with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Dublin Regulation]. In case an applicant has absconded from this Member State and, without authorisation, travelled to another Member State, it is vital, for the purpose of ensuring a well-functioning Common European Asylum System that the applicant is swiftly returned to the Member State where he or she is required to be present. Until such a transfer has taken place, there is a risk that the applicant may abscond and his or her whereabouts should therefore be closely monitored.
- (15) The fact that an applicant has previously absconded to another Member State is an important factor when assessing the risk that the applicant may abscond. To ensure that the applicant does not abscond again and remains available to the competent authorities, once the applicant has been ➞ transferred ➞ ~~sent back~~ to the Member State where he or she is required to be present, his or her whereabouts should therefore be closely monitored. ➞ Appropriate measures should be taken to avoid keep that the applicant from absconds absconding again. ➞

➔ (15a)¹⁸ For reasons of public interest, Member States ~~may~~, should be able to freely organise their reception systems in accordance with this Directive and, where necessary, restrict the applicants' freedom of movement. ~~organise their reception systems by allocating applicants to within their territory and by restricting the applicants' freedom of movement to specific geographical areas. For reasons of public interest they should in certain situations decide that applicants must reside in a specific place and may require applicants to report to the competent authorities.~~ ☺

➔ (15b) As part of the normal organisation of their reception systems, Member States may allocate applicants to specific geographical areas or to a specific place within their territory for reasons of public interest, for example in order to ensure geographical distribution of applicants, a swift processing of their applications for international protection or the management of available capacities in their reception systems. Member States are not required to adopt an administrative decision for this purpose. Where such a decision is adopted, it might have an informative nature and ~~only~~ Member States need not provide for the possibility to appeal this decision. Member States may also put in place procedures for assessing the needs of their reception systems and in this context may impose registration procedures or obligations on the applicants in order to monitor their actual presence and possible whereabouts. Such mechanisms should not restrict the applicants' freedom of movement. ☺

¹⁸ CY, DE, EL, FI, IT, PT and SK: scrutiny reservation on recitals 15a, 15b and 15c.

➔ (15c) Where Member States decide to restrict the applicants' freedom of movement by allocating them to a geographical area within their territory which they cannot leave without permission, an individual decision must be adopted. Such an area should respect the unalienable sphere of private life and allow the applicants to have access to all the benefits of this Directive. Also in view to ensure geographical distribution of applicants, a swift processing of their applications for international protection, the management of available capacities in their reception systems or to effectively prevent applicants from absconding, Member States may restrict the applicants' freedom of movement to specific geographical areas within their territory. The size of the assigned designated area should not affect the unalienable sphere of private life of the applicants and allow the applicants to access all benefits under this Directive. ©

(16) For reasons of public interest or public order, for the swift processing and effective monitoring of his or her application for international protection, for the swift processing and effective monitoring of his or her procedure for determining the Member State responsible in accordance with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Dublin Regulation] or in ~~in~~ For reasons of public order or in ~~in~~ order to effectively prevent the applicant from absconding, Member States should, where necessary, ~~assign~~ ~~decide that~~ the applicant ~~should reside~~ residence in a specific place, such as an accommodation centre, a private house, flat, hotel or other premises adapted for housing applicants ~~;~~ ~~or~~ and may require applicants to report to the competent authorities ~~;~~ ~~Such an~~ ~~An~~ assignment ~~A~~ designation to reside in a specific place should not result in the detention of the applicant, that is the confinement of the applicant within this specific place and deprivation of his or her freedom of movement. ~~Such a~~ ~~A~~ ~~decision~~ ~~to assign the applicant designation to reside in residence in~~ a specific place may be necessary ~~to effectively prevent the applicant from absconding in particular~~ in cases where the applicant has not complied with the obligations to: ~~make an application in the Member State of first irregular or legal entry;~~ to¹⁹ remain in the Member State where he or she is required to be present; or in cases where the applicant has been ~~sent~~ ~~transferred~~ ~~back~~ to the Member State where he or she is required to be present after having absconded to another Member State. - (19) In view of the serious consequences for applicants who have absconded or who are considered to be at risk of absconding, the meaning of absconding should be defined in view of encompassing both a deliberate action ~~which is not outside the applicant's control~~ ~~to avoid the applicable asylum procedures~~ and the factual circumstance ~~, which is not beyond the applicant's control,~~ ~~of not remaining available to the relevant authorities,~~ including by leaving the territory where the applicant is required to be present. ~~In accordance with this definition,~~ Member States may consider that an applicant has absconded even if the applicant has previously not been considered as being at risk of absconding.

Representatives and temporary representatives should be designated in accordance with the procedure defined at national level, which may be different for representatives and temporary representatives, in particular depending on their tasks in the national system. The main role of a temporary representative should be to assist the unaccompanied minor in the initial stages of the procedure for international protection, which may not necessarily entail responsibility to act in the procedure on behalf of the unaccompanied minor. On the other hand, in cases where a person claims to be a minor but is clearly above the age of eighteen years, based on physical appearance or documentary evidence, a temporary representative or a representative need not be appointed. ↻ ↵

➤ The temporary representative or a representative may for example need to further explain information provided to the unaccompanied minor, liaise with the authorities responsible for reception conditions to ensure immediate access for the unaccompanied minor to material reception conditions and health care, assist the unaccompanied minor in case of sanctions, of restrictions or measures related to freedom of movement, or in case of detention. ↻

The results of medical screening should not influence the assessment of applications for international protection, which should always be carried out objectively, impartially and on an individual basis in line with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [➤ Asylum ↻ Procedures Regulation].

(32) An applicant's entitlement to material reception conditions under this Directive may be curtailed ~~in~~ in certain circumstances such as where an applicant has absconded to another Member State from the Member State where he or she is required to be present. However, Member States should in all circumstances ensure access to health care and a dignified³² ~~minimum~~ standard of living for applicants ~~which is~~ in line ~~with~~ accordance with the ~~Union Law and other international obligations, including~~ Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union and the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, in particular by providing for the applicant's subsistence and basic needs ~~both~~ both in terms of physical safety and dignity and in terms of interpersonal relationships, with due regard to the inherent vulnerabilities of the person as applicant for international protection and that of his or her family or caretaker. Due regard must also be given to applicants with special reception needs. The specific needs of children, in particular with regard to respect for the child's right to education and access to healthcare have to be taken into account. When a minor is in a Member State other than the one in which he or she is required to be present, Member States should provide the minor with access to suitable educational activities ~~which may include access to national education systems~~ pending the transfer to the Member State responsible. The specific needs of women applicants who have experienced gender-based harm should be taken into account, including via ensuring access, at different stages of the asylum procedure, to medical care, legal support, and to appropriate trauma counselling and psycho-social care.

(33) The scope of the definition of family member should reflect the reality of current migratory trends, according to which applicants often arrive to the territory of the Member States after a prolonged period of time in transit. The definition should therefore include families formed outside the country of origin, but before their arrival on the territory of the Member States.

(34) In order to promote the self-sufficiency of applicants and to limit wide discrepancies between Member States, it is essential to provide clear rules on the applicants' access to the labour market ⇒ and to ensure that such access is effective, by not imposing conditions that effectively hinder an applicant from seeking employment ↻ and by not unduly restricting access to specific sectors of the labour market ◌ . ↻ Applicants who have effective access to the labour market and have been assigned designated to a specific place of residence should be able to seek employment within a reasonable distance from ~~the specific~~ this place of residence assigned. ◌ Labour market tests used to give priority to nationals or to other Union citizens or to third-country nationals legally resident in the Member State concerned should not hinder effective access for applicants to the labour market and should be implemented without prejudice to the principle of preference for Union citizens as expressed in the relevant provisions of the applicable Acts of Accession ⇐³³.

↻ (34a) Access to the labour market entitles the applicant to seek employment. Member States may also allow applicants to be self-employed or establish oneself as self-employed while. The Member State retains the possibility to verify the situation of its labour market before the applicant can fill a specific vacancy. ◌³⁴

(35) ~~The maximum time frame for access to the labour market should be aligned with the duration of the examination procedure on the merits.~~ In order to increase integration prospects and self-sufficiency of applicants, earlier access to the labour market is encouraged where the application is likely to be well-founded, including when its examination has been prioritised in accordance with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Procedures Regulation]. Member States should therefore consider reducing that time period as much as possible with a view to ensuring that applicants have access to the labour market no later than 3 months from the date when the application was lodged in cases where the application is likely to be well-founded. Member States should however not grant access to the labour market to applicants whose application for international protection is likely to be unfounded and for which ~~therefore~~ an accelerated examination procedure is applied, including in cases where they withhold relevant information or documents with respect to ~~do not cooperate with regard to the determination of their identity~~³⁵.

³⁵ AT, DE, ES, FI, IT and SE: scrutiny reservation on recital 35. DE and ES felt that this recital is not coherent with Article 15.

- (37) A Member State should recognise professional qualifications acquired by an applicant in another Member State in the same way as those of citizens of the Union and should take into account qualifications acquired in a third country in accordance with Directive 2005/36/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council. ³⁹ ~~Special measures~~ ~~Measures should~~ ~~also need to~~ be considered with a view to effectively addressing the practical difficulties encountered by applicants concerning the authentication of their foreign diploma, certificates or other evidence of formal qualifications, in particular ~~where applicants cannot provide~~ ~~due to the lack of~~ documentary evidence and ~~cannot~~ ~~their inability to~~ meet the costs related to the recognition procedures ⁴⁰.

~~In addition, the~~ ~~The~~ right to freedom of association and affiliation may ~~also~~ be limited by excluding applicants from taking part in the management of certain bodies and from holding a public office.

(40) Union law does not limit the power of the Member States to organise their social security schemes. In the absence of harmonisation at Union level, it is for each Member State to lay down the conditions under which social security benefits are granted, as well as the amount of such benefits and the period for which they are granted. However, when exercising that power, Member States should comply with Union law.

⁷⁶ FR: scrutiny reservation on the change of title.

~~1. Member States shall ensure that, within three days of the lodging of an application for international protection, the applicant is provided with a document issued in his or her own name certifying his or her status as an applicant or testifying that he or she is allowed to stay on the territory of the Member State while his or her application is pending or being examined.~~

~~If the holder is not free to move within all or a part of the territory of the Member State, the document shall also certify that fact.~~

~~2. Member States may exclude application of this Article when the applicant is in detention and during the examination of an application for international protection made at the border or within the context of a procedure to decide on the right of the applicant to enter the territory of a Member State. In specific cases, during the examination of an application for international protection, Member States may provide applicants with other evidence equivalent to the document referred to in paragraph 1.~~

~~3. The document referred to in paragraph 1 need not certify the identity of the applicant.~~

~~4. Member States shall adopt the necessary measures to provide applicants with the document referred to in paragraph 1, which must be valid for as long as they are authorised to remain on the territory of the Member State concerned.~~

⁹⁹ ES: wishes the words "which affect applicants individually" to be reintroduced.

¹⁰¹ AT: replace "this Article" by "paragraph 2 (a) and (d)". Decisions on the residence which are based on reasons in accordance with paragraph 2 (b) and (c) need not to be justified individually. AT also called for a distinction between applicants with Dublin relevance and applicants without Dublin relevance. ES and NL: there should be no reference to paragraph 1.

¹⁰² PT: reservation. EL, supported by IT, LU and NL: scrutiny reservation. This requirement may prove to be extremely difficult in practice, especially in cases of particular pressure. Furthermore, these are guarantees that apply when a detention order is issued. Need to clarify between the two notions (Articles 7 and 8). IT: this paragraph is in line with the right to the freedom of movement. Nonetheless, its effects are not clearly predicted. The decision therein should not have suspensive effect otherwise the provision does not achieve its goal. Moreover, is the possibility of challenging this decision foreseen? Does reference to Art. 25 entail that free legal assistance is extended to this?) NL, which expressed similar concerns, agrees that it is important that the applicant should be well informed about the content of a decision. However, it is equally important that restricted measures can be imposed as quickly as possible. It suggests the following wording: " Member States [...] will ensure that the applicant understands the content of the measure taken and the limits of the area or place in which he or she is allowed to stay."

FI, IE, LU and PL: this is a step in the right direction but no support to the cumulative condition of non-compliance to Article 7(2) added to the risk of absconding. In practice if the applicant has not complied with the obligations laid down in Article 7, he has probably absconded already and we will not be able to detain him. The assessment of the risk of absconding should be sufficient as a ground for detention. BE: insert reference to Article 7 (3). CZ: this provision evokes an alternative to detention; delete the reference to Art.7(2). Overlap between (b) and (c). DE, EL, ES, FR and SE: scrutiny reservation. IT, supported by EL: reservation; delete point (c). Detention in reaction to a non-compliance with the obligation to stay in a specific place is disproportionate and may raise serious problems in those systems where detention centres have reception standards different from the reception centres. HU: scrutiny reservation on point c). Some third country nationals will try to hamper removal and apply for asylum directly after being detained to avoid or complicate detention. The Netherlands suggest a more effective solution for these situations. The wording is derived from the wording in the article 24(2) of the SIS II Regulation (EC) No 1987/2006 (SIS II). NL believes that the current wording is too restrictive in light of the ruling of the CJEU in C-601/15.

¹¹² DE: scrutiny reservation on Article 9.

Administrative procedures relevant to the grounds for detention set out in Article 8(3) shall be executed with due diligence. Delays in administrative procedures that cannot be attributed to the applicant shall not justify a continuation of detention.

2. Detention of applicants shall be ordered in writing by judicial or administrative authorities. The detention order shall state the reasons in fact and in law on which it is based.
3. Where detention is ordered by administrative authorities, Member States shall provide for a speedy judicial review of the lawfulness of detention to be conducted ex officio and/or at the request of the applicant. When conducted ex officio, such review shall be decided on as speedily as possible from the beginning of detention. When conducted at the request of the applicant, it shall be decided on as speedily as possible after the launch of the relevant proceedings. To this end, Member States shall define in national law the period within which the judicial review ex officio and/or the judicial review at the request of the applicant shall be conducted.

Where, as a result of the judicial review, detention is held to be unlawful, the applicant concerned shall be released immediately.

4. Detained applicants shall immediately be informed in writing, in a language which they understand or are reasonably supposed to understand, of the reasons for detention and the procedures laid down in national law for challenging the detention order, as well as of the possibility to request free legal assistance and representation.
5. Detention shall be reviewed by a judicial authority at reasonable intervals of time, ex officio and/or at the request of the applicant concerned, in particular whenever it is of a prolonged duration, relevant circumstances arise or new information becomes available which may affect the lawfulness of detention.

6. In cases of a judicial review of the detention order provided for in paragraph 3, Member States shall ensure that applicants have access to free legal assistance and representation. This shall include, at least, the preparation of the required procedural documents and participation in the hearing before the judicial authorities on behalf of the applicant.

Free legal assistance and representation shall be provided by suitably qualified persons as admitted or permitted under national law whose interests do not conflict or could not potentially conflict with those of the applicant.

7. Member States may also provide that free legal assistance and representation are granted:

- (a) only to those who lack sufficient resources; and/or
- (b) only through the services provided by legal advisers or other counsellors specifically designated by national law to assist and represent applicants.

8. Member States may also:

- (a) impose monetary and/or time limits on the provision of free legal assistance and representation, provided that such limits do not arbitrarily restrict access to legal assistance and representation;
- (b) provide that, as regards fees and other costs, the treatment of applicants shall not be more favourable than the treatment generally accorded to their nationals in matters pertaining to legal assistance.

9. Member States may demand to be reimbursed wholly or partially for any costs granted if and when the applicant's financial situation has improved considerably or if the decision to grant such costs was taken on the basis of false information supplied by the applicant.

10. Procedures for access to legal assistance and representation shall be laid down in national law.

Article 10

Conditions of detention¹¹³

1. Detention of applicants shall take place, as a rule, in specialised detention facilities. Where a Member State cannot provide accommodation in a specialised detention facility and is obliged to resort to prison accommodation, the detained applicant shall be kept separately from ordinary prisoners and the detention conditions provided for in this Directive shall apply.

As far as possible, detained applicants shall be kept separately from other third-country nationals who have not lodged an application for international protection.

When applicants cannot be detained separately from other third-country nationals, the Member State concerned shall ensure that the detention conditions provided for in this Directive are applied.

2. Detained applicants shall have access to open-air spaces.
3. Member States shall ensure that persons representing the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) have the possibility to communicate with and visit applicants in conditions that respect privacy. That possibility shall also apply to an organisation which is working on the territory of the Member State concerned on behalf of UNHCR pursuant to an agreement with that Member State.
4. Member States shall ensure that family members, legal advisers or counsellors and persons representing relevant non-governmental organisations recognised by the Member State concerned have the possibility to communicate with and visit applicants in conditions that respect privacy. Limits to access to the detention facility may be imposed only where, by virtue of national law, they are objectively necessary for the security, public order or administrative management of the detention facility, provided that access is not thereby severely restricted or rendered impossible.

¹¹³ DE: scrutiny reservation.

5. Member States shall ensure that applicants in detention are systematically provided with information which explains the rules applied in the facility and sets out their rights and obligations in a language which they understand or are reasonably supposed to understand. Member States may derogate from this obligation in duly justified cases and for a reasonable period which shall be as short as possible, in the event that the applicant is detained at a border post or in a transit zone. ¹⁶⁶ BE, DE, FI, IT and SE: reinstate paragraph 2. NL, supported by AT, maintained its position, due to the link of the provision with its recital: supports deletion, it will be impossible to agree on a definition of "dignified standard of living". SE: scrutiny reservation on the deletion.

¹⁶⁷ FR: add the words "and without prejudice to paragraph 2 of Article 11". DE: scrutiny reservation on this paragraph.

¹⁶⁸ DE: clarify the link between this provision and Article 17a (if in the wrong MS, does that lead to a reduction of material reception conditions but not of healthcare?) and also the link between paragraphs 1 and 2. HU: scrutiny reservation; does not support the principle of a single Member State responsible, as set out in the relevant provisions of the Dublin-proposal, Chapter III. Asylum applicants should only have the right to "emergency health care", and not to "the necessary health care".

3. Member States shall start tracing the members of the unaccompanied minor's family, where necessary with the assistance of international or other relevant organisations, as soon as possible after an application for international protection is made, whilst protecting his or her best interests. In cases where there may be a threat to the life or integrity of the minor or his or her close relatives, particularly if they have remained in the country of origin, care must be taken to ensure that the collection, processing and circulation of information concerning those persons is undertaken on a confidential basis, so as to avoid jeopardising their safety.²¹¹

Victims of torture and violence

1. Member States shall ensure that persons who have been subjected to ⇒ gender-based harm, ↻ trafficking in human beings, ↻ ⇐ torture, rape or other serious acts of violence receive the necessary treatment for the damage caused by such acts, in particular access to appropriate medical and psychological treatment or care.²¹²

↓ 2013/33/EU

2. Those working with victims of torture, rape or other serious acts of violence shall have had and shall continue to receive appropriate training concerning their needs, and shall be bound by the confidentiality rules provided for in national law, in relation to any information they obtain in the course of their work.

²¹² NL: focus should be on the need for treatment, not on the fact that applicants were victims of some form of abuse.

CHAPTER V

APPEALS

Article ~~26~~ 25

Appeals

1. Member States shall ensure that decisions relating to the granting, ⇒ replacement ⇐ withdrawal or reduction of benefits under this Directive or decisions taken under Article 7 which affect applicants individually may be the subject of an appeal within the procedures laid down in national law. At least in the last instance the possibility of an appeal or a review, in fact and in law, before a judicial authority shall be granted.²¹³

↓ 2013/33/EU

2. In cases of an appeal or a review before a judicial authority referred to in paragraph 1, Member States shall ensure that free legal assistance and representation is made available on request in so far as such aid is necessary to ensure effective access to justice. This shall include, at least, the preparation of the required procedural documents and participation in the hearing before the judicial authorities on behalf of the applicant.

²¹³ DE: see positions on Art. 19.

Free legal assistance and representation shall be provided by suitably qualified persons, as admitted or permitted under national law, whose interests do not conflict or could not potentially conflict with those of the applicant.

3. Member States may also provide that free legal assistance and representation are granted:
 - (a) only to those who lack sufficient resources; and/or
 - (b) only through the services provided by legal advisers or other counsellors specifically designated by national law to assist and represent applicants.

Member States may provide that free legal assistance and representation not be made available if the appeal or review is considered by a competent authority to have no tangible prospect of success. In such a case, Member States shall ensure that legal assistance and representation is not arbitrarily restricted and that the applicant's effective access to justice is not hindered.

4. Member States may also:
 - (a) impose monetary and/or time limits on the provision of free legal assistance and representation, provided that such limits do not arbitrarily restrict access to legal assistance and representation;
 - (b) provide that, as regards fees and other costs, the treatment of applicants shall not be more favorable than the treatment generally accorded to their nationals in matters pertaining to legal assistance.
5. Member States may demand to be reimbursed wholly or partially for any costs granted if and when the applicant's financial situation has improved considerably or if the decision to grant such costs was taken on the basis of false information supplied by the applicant.
6. Procedures for access to legal assistance and representation shall be laid down in national law.

Article ~~28~~ 27²¹⁴

Guidance, monitoring and control system

²¹⁴ EL: in the context of the discussions on the EUAAR proposal, EL has raised serious concerns about its implementation with regard to the monitoring mechanism introduced therein. Therefore maintains a scrutiny reservation in this provision.

- [1. Member States shall, with due respect to their constitutional structure²¹⁵, put in place relevant mechanisms in order to ensure that appropriate guidance, monitoring and control of the level of reception conditions are established. ~~☞ For this purpose Member States may put in place appropriate measures to regularly assess the needs of their reception system.~~ ☹ ☞ Member States shall take into account ☞ available, non binding²¹⁶ ☹ [operational standards on reception conditions and indicators developed by the European Asylum Support Office / the European Union Agency for Asylum]²¹⁷ and any other reception conditions operational standards, indicators ☞ , ☹ or guidelines ☞ or best practices ☹ established in accordance with Article [12] of Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Regulation on the European Union Agency for Asylum] ☞ , without prejudice to Member States' competence for organising their reception systems in line with this Directive ☹. ↵
2. ~~Member States shall submit relevant information to the Commission in the form set out in Annex I, by 20 July 2016 at the latest.~~ ☞ Member States' reception systems shall be ☞ subject to the monitoring mechanisms ☹ ~~monitored and assessed in accordance with the procedure set out in [Chapter 5] of Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Regulation on the European Union Agency for Asylum].~~ ↵²¹⁸]

²¹⁵ IT suggested deleting the words "with due respect to their constitutional structure".

²¹⁶ DE: scrutiny reservation on the addition of "non binding".

²¹⁷ CY, EL, PL, PT and SK: reservation regarding the mandatory nature of these standards and guidelines. If not the case, then the non-binding nature of the standards should be explicit.

²¹⁸ CZ: scrutiny reservation; paragraph 2 is difficult to transpose because wording used is not appropriate for a Directive. HU: scrutiny reservation on paragraph 2. BG, DE, FR and NL: scrutiny reservation on the role of EUAA. PL: scrutiny reservation on the competences of EUAA. Clarify in the text that guidance should be developed by Member States and EUAA.

Article 28

Contingency planning²¹⁹

1. Each Member State shall draw up a contingency plan setting out the planned measures to be taken to ensure to the extent possible, an adequate reception of applicants in accordance with this Directive in cases where the Member State is confronted with a disproportionate number of applicants²²⁰ for international protection. The applicants for international protection are to be understood as those required to be present on its territory, including those for whom the Member State is responsible in accordance with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Dublin Regulation], taking into account the corrective allocation mechanism outlined in Chapter VII of that Regulation.

²¹⁹ BG, CY, CZ, DE, EL, ES, FR, IT, PL and SK: scrutiny reservation on the whole article. The criteria for drawing up such a plan is nowhere defined and therefore it renders unclear the scope of MS obligations about it.

2. The first ~~contingency~~ plan ~~referred to in paragraph 1~~ shall ~~be completed,~~ ~~taking~~ ~~take~~ into account the specific national circumstances, ~~using a template to be developed by the European Union Agency for Asylum~~²²¹ ~~in accordance with Article 12(4) of [Regulation on the European Union Agency for Asylum]~~, and shall be notified to the European Union Agency for Asylum at the latest by ~~6~~ ~~12~~ months after entry into force of this Directive]. ~~The plan shall be reviewed when needed due to changed circumstances and, if updated, notified to the European Union Agency for Asylum. The Member States shall inform the Commission and the European Union Agency for Asylum whenever its contingency plan is activated.~~ ~~An updated~~ ~~The contingency plan shall be reviewed every five years thereafter and any updates shall be notified to the European Union Agency for Asylum every two~~ ~~five~~ ~~years thereafter.~~ ~~The Member States shall inform the Commission and the European Union Agency for Asylum whenever its contingency plan is activated.~~²²²
3. ~~The~~ ~~Member States shall provide the European Union Agency for Asylum with information on their plan and the Agency shall assist Member States to prepare and review their~~ ~~contingency plans~~, ~~upon their request, upon their request or with their agreement of the Member States concerned~~ and in particular the adequacy of the measures taken according to the plans, shall be monitored and assessed in accordance with the ~~[second sub paragraph 5 of Article 135]~~ ~~procedure set out in [Chapter 5] of Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Regulation on the European Union Agency for Asylum].~~²²³

²²¹ FR and SK: not in favour of the application of a template developed by the EUAA.

²²² HU: scrutiny reservation. HU does not oppose the preparation of the contingency planning, but feels that it is closely related to the monitoring role of the EUAA, which it consistently rejected. HU proposes that Member State shall have a significant and exclusive role in the preparation of the contingency planning. The EUAA shall assist Member States only with their agreement. NL: helpful to have a template not excluding the differences between MS. FR: more flexibility is needed when updating the contingency plan. Updates may be needed before the 5 years, but they may also not be needed. IT: "An updated plan shall be drawn and notified to the Agency where circumstances have changed and new measures are needed".

²²³ PL: reservation on the new powers of the Agency.

Article 29

Staff and resources

1. Member States shall take appropriate measures to ensure that authorities and other organisations implementing this Directive have received the necessary ~~basic~~ training with respect to the needs of both male and female applicants. ⇒ To that end, Member States shall ~~integrate~~ ↻ include core parts of ↻ the European asylum curriculum developed by the European Union Agency for Asylum into the training of their personnel in accordance with Regulation (EU) No XXX/XXX [Regulation on the European Union Agency for Asylum]. ↵²²⁴
2. Member States shall allocate the necessary resources in connection with the national law implementing this Directive.

²²⁴ BE: wishes to include in this provision the sentence "taking into account the specific national circumstances", as proposed by the Presidency in relation to Article 28. FR, supported by BE: make clear that we talk about those having direct contact with the asylum seekers. Replace "integrate the European asylum curriculum" with "develop appropriate training on the basis of relevant tools of the European asylum curriculum". Delete "into the training of their personnel".
