JUSTCIV 27

COUNCIL ACT

drawing up a Convention on the service in the Member States of the European Union
of judicial and extrajudicial documents
in civil or commercial matters

THE COUNCIL OF THE EUROPEAN UNION,

HAVING REGARD to the Treaty on European Union, and in particular Article K.3(2)(c) thereof,

CONSIDERING that, for the purposes of achieving the objectives of the European Union, the Member States view the rules on cooperation in the service of judicial and extrajudicial documents in civil or commercial matters as a matter of common interest falling within the scope of judicial cooperation in civil matters as laid down in Title VI of the Treaty;

HAVING EXAMINED the views of the European Parliament, <sup>(1)</sup> following the consultation conducted by the Presidency in accordance with Article K.6 of the Treaty;

(not yet published in the Official Journal).

HAVING DECIDED that the Convention, the text of which is attached, which has been signed today by the Representatives of the Governments of the Member States, is hereby drawn up,

RECOMMENDS that it be adopted by the Member States in accordance with their respective constitutional requirements:

CONVENTION,
DRAWN UP ON THE BASIS OF ARTICLE K.3
OF THE TREATY ON EUROPEAN UNION,
ON THE SERVICE
IN THE MEMBER STATES OF THE EUROPEAN UNION
OF JUDICIAL AND EXTRAJUDICIAL DOCUMENTS
IN CIVIL OR COMMERCIAL MATTERS

THE HIGH CONTRACTING PARTIES to this Convention, Member States of the European Union:

REFERRING to the act of the Council of the European Union of .....

DESIRING to improve and expedite the transmission of judicial and extrajudicial documents in civil or commercial matters for service between the Member States;

WHEREAS, to that end, the transmission of these documents shall be effected directly and by rapid means, between the agencies designated by the Member States;

WHEREAS Article K.3(2)(c) of the Treaty on European Union provides that conventions drawn up on the basis of Article K.3 thereof may stipulate that the Court of Justice of the European Communities shall have jurisdiction to interpret their provisions, in accordance with such arrangements as they may lay down;

BEARING IN MIND the Hague Convention of 15 November 1965 on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters and, in particular, the provision in Article 25 thereof that that Convention does not derogate from conventions which contain provisions on the matters governed by it and to which Contracting States are, or shall become, Parties,

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

TITLE I

ARTICLE 1

Scope

1. This Convention shall apply in civil and commercial matters where a judicial or extrajudicial document has to be transmitted from one Member State to another for service there.
2. This Convention shall not apply where the address of the person to be served with the document is not known.

ARTICLE 2

Transmitting and receiving agencies

1. Each Member State shall designate the public officers, authorities or other persons, hereinafter referred to as "transmitting agencies", competent for the transmission of judicial or extrajudicial documents to be served in another Member State.

2. Each Member State shall designate the public officers, authorities or other persons, hereinafter referred to as "receiving agencies", competent for the receipt of judicial or extrajudicial documents from another Member State.

3. A Member State may declare, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), that it will designate one transmitting agency or/and one receiving agency. A federal State, a State in which several legal systems apply or a State with autonomous territorial units shall be free to designate more than one such agency. The designation shall have effect for a period of five years and may be renewed at five-year intervals.

4. Each Member State, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), shall provide the following information:

- (a) the names and addresses of the receiving agencies referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3;
- (b) the geographical areas in which they have jurisdiction;
- (c) the means of receipt of documents available to them; and
- (d) the languages that may be used for the completion of the standard form in the Annex.

The Member States shall notify the depositary of any subsequent modification of such information.

ARTICLE 3

Central body

Each Member State shall, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), designate a central body responsible for:

- (a) supplying information to the transmitting agencies;
- (b) seeking solutions to any difficulties which may arise during transmission of documents for service;
- (c) forwarding, in exceptional cases, at the request of a transmitting agency, a request for service to the competent receiving agency.

A federal State, a State in which several legal systems apply or a State with autonomous territorial units shall be free to designate more than one central body.

TITLE II

JUDICIAL DOCUMENTS

SECTION 1

TRANSMISSION AND SERVICE OF JUDICIAL DOCUMENTS

ARTICLE 4

Transmission of documents

1. Judicial documents shall be transmitted directly and as soon as possible between the agencies designated on the basis of Article 2.
2. The transmission of documents, requests, confirmations, receipts, certificates and any other papers between transmitting agencies and receiving agencies may be carried out by any appropriate means, provided that the content of the document received is true and faithful to that of the document forwarded and that all information in it is easily legible.

3. The document to be transmitted shall be accompanied by a request drawn up using the standard form in the Annex. The form shall be completed in the official language of the Member State addressed or, if there are several official languages in that Member State, the official language or one of the official languages of the place where service is to be effected, or in another language which that Member State has indicated it can accept. When giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), each Member State shall indicate the official language or languages of the European Union other than its own which is or are acceptable to it for completion of the form.

4. The documents and all papers that are transmitted shall be exempted from legalisation or any equivalent formality.

5. When the transmitting agency wishes a copy of the document to be returned together with the certificate referred to in Article 10, it shall send the document in duplicate.

ARTICLE 5

Translation of documents

1. The applicant shall be advised by the transmitting agency to which he or she forwards the document for transmission that the addressee may refuse to accept it if it is not in one of the languages provided for in Article 8.

2. The applicant shall bear any costs of translation prior to the transmission of the document, without prejudice to any possible subsequent decision by the court or competent authority on liability for such costs.

ARTICLE 6

Receipt of documents by receiving agency

1. A receiving agency, on receipt of a document, shall, as soon as possible and in any event within seven days of receipt thereof, send a receipt to the transmitting agency by the swiftest possible means of transmission using the standard form in the Annex.
2. Where the request for service cannot be fulfilled on the basis of the information or documents transmitted, the receiving agency shall contact the transmitting agency by the swiftest possible means in order to secure the missing information or documents.
3. If the request for service is manifestly outside the scope of this Convention or if non-compliance with the formal conditions required makes service impossible, the request and the documents transmitted shall be returned, on receipt, to the transmitting agency, together with the notice of return in the standard form in the Annex.

4. A receiving agency receiving a document for service but not having territorial jurisdiction to serve it shall forward it, as well as the request, to the competent receiving agency in the same Member State if the request complies with the conditions laid down in Article 4(3) and shall inform the transmitting agency accordingly, using the standard form in the Annex. That receiving agency shall inform the transmitting agency when it receives the document, in the manner provided for in paragraph 1.

ARTICLE 7

Service of documents

1. The receiving agency shall itself serve the document or have it served, either in accordance with the law of the Member State addressed or by a particular form requested by the transmitting agency, unless such a method is incompatible with the law of that Member State.

2. All steps required for service of the document shall be effected as soon as possible. In any event, if it has not been possible to effect service within one month of receipt, the receiving agency shall inform the transmitting agency by means of the certificate in the standard form in the Annex, which shall be drawn up under the conditions referred to in Article 10(2). The period shall be calculated in accordance with the law of the Member State addressed.

ARTICLE 8

Refusal to accept a document

1. The receiving agency shall inform the addressee that he or she may refuse to accept the document to be served if it is in a language other than either of the following languages:

(a) the official language of the Member State addressed or, if there are several official languages in that Member State, the official language or one of the official languages of the place where service is to be effected;

or

(b) a language of the Member State of transmission which the addressee understands.

2. Where the receiving agency is informed that the addressee refuses to accept the document in accordance with paragraph 1, it shall immediately inform the transmitting agency by means of the certificate provided for in Article 10 and return the request and the documents of which a translation is requested.

ARTICLE 9

Date of service

1. The date of service of a document under Article 7 shall be the date on which it is served in accordance with the law of the Member State addressed, without prejudice to Article 8.
2. However, where a document must be served within a particular period in the context of proceedings to be brought or pending in the Member State of origin, the date to be taken into account with respect to the applicant shall be that fixed by the law of that Member State.
3. When giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), each Member State may declare that it will not apply paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article.

ARTICLE 10

Certificate of service and copy of the document served

1. When the formalities concerning the service of the document have been completed, a certificate of completion of those formalities shall be drawn up in the standard form in the Annex and addressed to the transmitting agency, together with, where Article 4(5) applies, a copy of the document served.

2. The certificate shall be completed in the official language or one of the official languages of the Member State of origin or in another language which the Member State of origin has indicated that it can accept. Each Member State shall, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), indicate the official language or languages of the European Union other than its own which is or are acceptable to it for completion of the form.

ARTICLE 11

Costs of service

1. The service of judicial documents coming from a Member State shall not give rise to any payment or reimbursement of taxes or costs for services rendered by the Member State addressed.

2. The applicant shall pay or reimburse the costs occasioned by:

(a) the employment of a judicial officer or of a person competent under the law of the Member State addressed;

(b) the use of a particular method of service.

SECTION 2

OTHER MEANS OF TRANSMISSION AND SERVICE OF JUDICIAL DOCUMENTS

ARTICLE 12

Transmission by consular or diplomatic channels

Each Member State shall be free, in exceptional circumstances, to use consular or diplomatic channels to forward judicial documents, for the purpose of service, to those agencies of another Member State which are designated under Article 2 or 3.

ARTICLE 13

Service by diplomatic or consular agents

1. Each Member State shall be free to effect service of judicial documents on persons residing in another Member State, without application of any compulsion, directly through its diplomatic or consular agents.
2. Any Member State may, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), declare that it is opposed to such service within its territory, unless the documents are to be served on nationals of the Member State in which the documents originate.

ARTICLE 14

Service by post

1. Each Member State shall be free to effect service of judicial documents directly by post to persons residing in another Member State.
2. Any Member State may, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), or at any other time, specify the conditions under which it will accept service of judicial documents by post.

ARTICLE 15

Direct service

1. This Convention shall not interfere with the freedom of any person interested in a judicial proceeding to effect service of judicial documents directly through the judicial officers, officials or other competent persons of the Member State addressed.
2. Any Member State may, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), declare that it is opposed to the service of judicial documents in its territory pursuant to paragraph 1.

TITLE III

EXTRAJUDICIAL DOCUMENTS

ARTICLE 16

Extrajudicial documents may be transmitted for service in another Member State in accordance with the provisions of this Convention.

TITLE IV

INTERPRETATION BY THE COURT OF JUSTICE

ARTICLE 17

The Court of Justice of the European Communities shall have jurisdiction to give rulings on the interpretation of this Convention in accordance with the provisions of the Protocol drawn up by the act of the Council of the European Union of .....

TITLE V

FINAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 18

Executive Committee

1. A Committee shall be established with responsibility for examining all general questions relating to the application of this Convention.
2. The Committee shall meet at least once a year. It shall meet for the first time as soon as this Convention is applied, as provided for in Article 24(4), between three Member States. It shall monitor the functioning of this Convention and, in particular, the effectiveness of the agencies designated under Article 2 and the practical application of Articles 3(c) and 9. It shall report to the Council thereon within 3 years of its first meeting and every five years thereafter.
3. The Committee's tasks shall also include:
  - (a) drawing up and annually updating a manual containing the information provided by Member States in accordance with Article 2(4);
  - (b) drawing up a glossary in the official languages of the European Union of documents which can be served under this Convention;

4. The Committee may also make proposals designed to:
  - (a) expedite the transmission and service of documents;
  - (b) make adjustments to the form in the Annex;
  - (c) initiate negotiations for the revision of this Convention.

ARTICLE 19

Application of Articles 15 and 16 of the Hague Convention of 1965

Articles 15 and 16 of the Hague Convention of 15 November 1965 on the Service Abroad of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents in Civil or Commercial Matters shall apply in relation to writs of summons or equivalent documents under this Convention as they apply to such documents transmitted under the Hague Convention, and accordingly:

1. (a) Where a writ of summons or an equivalent document had to be transmitted to another Member State for the purpose of service, under the provisions of this Convention, and the defendant has not appeared, judgment shall not be given until it is established that:
  - (i) the document was served by a method prescribed by the internal law of the Member State addressed for the service of documents in domestic actions upon persons who are within its territory; or

(ii) the document was actually delivered to the defendant or to his residence by another method provided for by this Convention, and that in either of these cases the service or the delivery was effected in sufficient time to enable the defendant to defend.

(b) Each Member State shall be free, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), to declare that the judge, notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraph (a), may give judgment even if no certificate of service or delivery has been received, if all the following conditions are fulfilled:

(i) the document was transmitted by one of the methods provided for in this Convention;

(ii) a period of time of not less than six months, considered adequate by the judge in the particular case, has elapsed since the date of the transmission of the document;

(iii) no certificate of any kind has been received, even though every reasonable effort has been made to obtain it through the competent authorities of the State addressed.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of subparagraphs (a) and (b), the judge may order, in case of urgency, any provisional or protective measures.

2. (a) When a writ of summons or an equivalent document had to be transmitted to another Member State for the purpose of service, under the provisions of this Convention, and a judgment has been entered against a defendant who has not appeared, the judge shall have the power to relieve the defendant from the effects of the expiration of the time for appeal from the judgment if the following conditions are fulfilled:
  - (i) the defendant, without any fault on his part, did not have knowledge of the document in sufficient time to defend, or knowledge of the judgment in sufficient time to appeal; and
  - (ii) the defendant has disclosed a prima facie defence to the action on the merits.
- (b) An application for relief may be filed only within a reasonable time after the defendant has knowledge of the judgment.
- (c) Each Member State may declare, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), that the application will not be entertained if it is filed after the expiration of a time to be stated in the declaration, but which shall in no case be less than one year following the date of the judgment.
- (d) This paragraph shall not apply to judgments concerning status or capacity of persons.

ARTICLE 20

Relationship with other agreements or arrangements

1. This Convention shall not affect existing or future agreements or arrangements which fulfil the conditions laid down in Article K.7 of the Treaty on European Union between two or more Member States and which contain provisions on matters governed by this Convention.

2. Member States shall send to the depositary of this Convention:

- (a) a copy of the agreements or arrangements referred to in paragraph 1;
- (b) any denunciations of those agreements or arrangements.

ARTICLE 21

Legal aid

This Convention shall not affect the application of Article 23 of the Convention on Civil Procedure of 17 July 1905, Article 24 of the Convention on Civil Procedure of 1 March 1954 or Article 13 of the Convention on International Access to Justice of 25 October 1980 between the Member States parties to these Conventions.

ARTICLE 22

Protection of information transmitted

1. Information, including in particular personal data, transmitted under this Convention shall be used by the receiving agency only for the purpose for which it was transmitted.
2. Receiving agencies shall ensure the confidentiality of such information, in accordance with their national law.
3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not affect national laws enabling data subjects to be informed of the use made of information transmitted under this Convention.

ARTICLE 23

Reservations

1. Each Member State, when giving the notification referred to in Article 24(2), shall declare that it avails itself of one or more of the reservations provided for in
  - (a) Article 2(3);
  - (b) Article 9(3);
  - (c) Article 13(2);
  - (d) Article 15(2).

2. No reservations other than those expressly provided for shall be permitted.
3. Any Member State may, at any time, withdraw a reservation which it has made. The reservation shall cease to have effect ninety days after the notification of the withdrawal.

ARTICLE 24

Adoption and entry into force

1. This Convention shall be subject to adoption by the Member States in accordance with their respective constitutional requirements.
2. Member States shall notify the depositary of the completion of the constitutional procedures for the adoption of this Convention.
3. This Convention shall enter into force ninety days after the notification referred to in paragraph 2 by the last Member State to complete that formality.
4. Until this Convention enters into force, any Member State may, when giving the notification referred to in paragraph 2, or at any later date, declare that as far as it is concerned the Convention with the exception of Article 17 shall apply to its relations with Member States that have made the same declaration. Such declarations shall apply ninety days after the date of deposit.

ARTICLE 25

Accession

1. This Convention shall be open to accession by any State that becomes a member of the European Union.
2. The text of this Convention in the language or languages of the acceding State, drawn up by the Council of the European Union, shall be authentic.
3. Instruments of accession shall be deposited with the depositary.
4. This Convention shall enter into force with respect to any State that accedes to it ninety days after the deposit of its instrument of accession or on the date of entry into force of the Convention if it has not already entered into force at the time of expiry of the said period of ninety days.
5. Where this Convention is not yet in force at the time of the deposit of their instrument of accession, Article 24(4) shall apply to acceding Member States.

ARTICLE 26

Amendments

1. Amendments to this Convention may be proposed by any Member State, being a Party to this Convention, or by the Commission. Any proposal for an amendment shall be sent to the depositary, who shall forward it to the Council.
2. Amendments shall be adopted by the Council, which shall recommend that they be adopted by the Member States in accordance with their respective constitutional requirements.
3. Amendments thus adopted shall enter into force in accordance with the provisions of Article 24(3).
4. Notwithstanding paragraphs 1, 2 and 3, the forms in the Annex may be amended by decision of the Council, acting on a proposal from the Executive Committee in accordance with Article 18(4)(b), any Member State, being a party to this Convention, or the Commission.

ARTICLE 27

Depositary and publications

1. The Secretary-General of the Council of the European Union shall act as depositary of this Convention.

2. The depositary shall publish in the Official Journal:

- (a) adoptions and accessions;
- (b) the date on which this Convention enters into force;
- (c) the date on which this Convention is applied as between three Member States;
- (d) declarations referred to in Articles 2(1) and (2), 3, 4(3), 10(2), 14(2), 19(1)(b) and (2)(c), and 24(4);
- (e) reservations and withdrawals of reservations referred to in Article 23(1).

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the undersigned Plenipotentiaries have signed this Convention.

Done at _____, this _____, in a single original in the Danish, Dutch, English, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Irish, Italian, Portuguese, Spanish and Swedish languages, all texts being equally authentic, such original being deposited in the archives of the General Secretariat of the Council of the European Union.
