No. prev. doc.: 12088/1/99 REV 1

Subject : Public access to documents
- Draft Council decision on the improvement of information on the Council's legislative activities and the public register of Council documents

Following the discussion in the Coreper (2nd Part) on Information at its meeting on 10 November 1999 on the draft Council Decision, the Presidency submits to the Permanent Representatives Committee the revised text as contained in the annex.

DRAFT

Council decision of

on the improvement of information on the Council's legislative activities and the public register of Council documents

THE COUNCIL,

Having regard to its Rules of Procedure, and in particular Article 8 thereof,

Whereas:

1. openness is vital for democracy and accountability within the European Union and information to the public is one of the instruments to enhance such openness;
2. without prejudice to Decision 93/731/EC on access to Council documents and to the principles and limits governing the right of access to documents to be adopted under Article 255 of the EC Treaty:
 - further efforts should be made to improve information on the Council's legislative activities as defined in Article 6 of its Rules of Procedure,
 - measures should be taken to enhance further the performance of the public register of Council documents accessible on the Internet (<http://ue.eu.int>) since 1 January 1999,
 - the Council's internal procedures for public access to its documents should be further rationalised by using information technologies and avoiding excessive bureaucracy.

HAS DECIDED AS FOLLOWS:

Article 1

The General Secretariat of the Council shall make accessible to the public a list of the items on the provisional agendas of meetings of the Council and its preparatory bodies referring to cases where the Council acts in its legislative capacity, as defined in Article 6 of its Rules of Procedure.

This list shall include references to the documents considered in respect of those items. It shall be available in advance of the respective meeting and be updated in case of any changes.

Article 2

The public register of Council documents shall also include references to the document number and the subject matter of classified documents. No reference shall be made to the subject matter if disclosure of this information could undermine

- the protection of the public interest (public security, international relations, monetary stability, court proceedings, inspections and investigations),
- the protection of the individual and of privacy,
- the protection of commercial and industrial secrecy,
- the protection of the Community's financial interests,
- the protection of confidentiality as requested by the natural or legal person who supplied any of the information contained in the document or as required by the legislation of the Member State which supplied any of that information.

Article 3

As soon as the necessary technical preparations have been made and at the latest by 1 July 2000, it shall be indicated in the register which documents have already been released to the public, and their content shall be made available on the Internet.

Article 4

This decision shall be published in the Official Journal. It shall enter into force on [1 January 2000].

Statement for the minutes

The Council invites the Secretary General

- to start the technical preparations necessary to indicate in the register the documents which have already been released to the public with a view to making the contents of those documents available on the Internet ;
- to suggest, having regard to the provisions on access to documents in the EC Treaty, in particular Article 207 (3) and Article 255 thereof, which categories of Council documents, particularly those concerning the legislative process, could be systematically made available to the public on the Internet.
